

I recently received an e-mail from the State of Indiana's Attorney Generals office regarding the "do not call" list. Per the message below, certain banking groups are trying to revise this legislation. I am STRONGLY OPPOSED to any revisions to the do not call legislation. The law has been a godsend to consumers. Please do not allow these lobbying groups to win. Thank you!

CONSUMER BANKERS ASSOCIATION TRIES TO WEAKEN INDIANA'S TELEPHONE PRIVACY LAW

The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) has chosen to challenge Indiana's Telephone Privacy law in a proceeding before the Federal Communications Commission (FCC). The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If successful, anybody that you currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call you as often as they want. Over an eighteen month period, that could translate to over 800,000,000 more unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents.
